Charter for Parents in Catholic Schools SA

Charter for Parents in Catholic Schools SA

As integral members of a Catholic school community, parents*:

- Value and respect the Catholic identity of the school, its relationship to the parish community and the expression of its Catholic ethos through rituals, traditions, symbols and the teaching of Catholic beliefs
- Actively support their children's participation, and commit to a personal participation, in the school's Catholic rituals, traditions and outreach programs
- Share the responsibility for their children's faith, moral, social and emotional development
- Model Christian values in word and deed with all members of the school community
- Value and respect the diversity of faiths and cultures within the school community
- Contribute to a welcoming and inclusive community

As partners in the education of their children, parents:

- Support their children's learning at school and home
- Contribute to the life of the school in ways that reflect their interests, skills, experience and capacity to do so
- Respect and support school policies and regulations
- Contribute to consultation and decision making processes
- Work collaboratively with teachers and staff
- Respect the skills, knowledge and experience of school leaders and teachers
- Work toward resolving grievances appropriately and with respect
- Access information and resources provided by the school to support them in their role as the primary educators of their children
- Support their children's consistent and punctual attendance at school
- Fulfil their obligation to pay all fees and levies in a timely manner, however if they experience genuine financial difficulty, negotiate with the principal to make appropriate arrangements
- Contribute to a culture where privacy and confidentiality are assured
- Act as positive advocates for their children
- Contribute to the development of a safe school environment for students, staff and the wider school community
- Contribute to the development of a health promoting environment for students, staff and the wider school community
- Acknowledge and support the work of the school's governing body and associated committees
- Promote and encourage a collective responsibility to support the Charter for Parents in Catholic Schools SA

In holding positions of responsibility within Catholic school communities, parent leaders:

- Act as role models within their school communities by reflecting the values and ethos of the school
- Work constructively with the principal, the staff and the wider school community
- Build and nurture a sense of community

This Charter was developed in consultation with parents, principals and the Catholic Education Offices by The Federation of Catholic School Parent Communities (SA)

In this Charter, the term 'parent' includes carers and legal guardians*
