

Work Health & Safety and Injury Management Policy 2022 - 2025

The Catholic Church Endowment Society Inc. (CCES) and the Separately Incorporated entities are committed to achieving enviable performance in the management of work health, safety and injury management. This includes providing a safe and healthy place of work and the prevention of injuries and illness for all workers, visitors, contractors, students, volunteers, clients, residents and members of the public who may be impacted by CCES operations.

All managers are responsible and accountable for the workplace health and safety of themselves, workers, and others under their control. Furthermore, these individuals are responsible for their own health and safety and have a duty to work safely and in accordance with all our health and safety requirements. Refer to Responsibility, Authorities & Accountability Matrices and Position Descriptions.

We will achieve this through the following objectives:

1. Complying with Work Health and Safety Act 2012 (SA), the Work Health and Safety Regulations 2012 (SA), Codes of Practices, Australian Standards and Industry related standards.
2. Complying with the Return to Work Act 2014 (SA) and Return to Work Regulations 2015 (SA), Service Standards and Code of Conduct for Self-Insured Employers and associated documentation.
3. Adopting a formal risk management process to identify and evaluate workplace health and safety risks and working to eliminate or otherwise control and monitor them in accordance with the hierarchy of control method and legal requirements.
4. Reporting and reviewing performance and providing sufficient resources both internal and external to support the delivery of improvement plans.
5. Establishing measurable health and safety, injury management objectives and targets to ensure continuous improvement aimed at the elimination of work related illness and injury.
6. Developing, maintaining and reviewing a documented Work Health and Safety Management System.
7. Developing, maintaining and reviewing a documented Injury Management System.
8. Providing appropriate health, safety and injury management training and education to all workers.
9. Consulting and involving all workers in decisions affecting their workplace health and safety.
10. Making relevant health and safety information available to all workers and others in the workplace.
11. Ensuring the Work Health & Safety and Injury Management Policy is effectively implemented, communicated and made publicly available.

INTRODUCTION

The Catholic Church in South Australia manages work health and safety and injury management as a self-insured employer, acting for itself and the identified Separately Incorporated entities that align to the Church for this purpose.

The Separately Incorporated entities are the Agencies and Instrumentalities of the Church who are bodies corporate listed in Appendix 1 of the Indenture between The Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Corporation (now known as Return to Work SA) and The Catholic Church Endowment Society Incorporated (CCES) dated 8th April 1988.

Catholic Church Insurance Ltd (CCI) has signed a Deed for Substituted Arrangements with CCES and the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Corporation (now known as Return To Work SA) to manage all workers compensation claims on behalf of the CCES in South Australia.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Person conducting a business or undertaking (PCBU)

The PCBU for the Catholic Church in South Australia is the CCES and each of the Separately Incorporated entities who are included in the Registration.

Each PCBU has the responsibility to provide a healthy and safe workplace for their workers and a responsibility to ensure so far as is reasonably practicable the:

- provision and maintenance of a work environment with risks to health and safety removed or reduced
- provision of safe plant, structures and safe systems of work
- safe use, handling and storage of plant, structures and substances
- provision of and access to adequate facilities for the welfare of workers at work
- provision of information, training, instruction and supervision that is needed to protect all persons from risks to their health and safety when undertaking work being undertaken for the PCBU
- health of workers and the conditions at the workplace are monitored for the purpose of preventing illness or injury arising from the conduct of the business or undertaking

The PCBU also has a responsibility to ensure:

- steps are taken to provide suitable duties for injured workers in accordance with medical advice and reasonable direction from CCI
- employment is provided to injured workers in accordance with the Return to Work Act 2014

Catholic Church Endowment Society (CCES)

CCES is empowered to coordinate and act on behalf of the worksites within the Indenture to:

- Define a Governance structure for work health and safety in the Church

- act within the spirit and requirements of the Return to Work Act 2014
- ensure compliance with the legal requirement to provide alternate duties for injured workers at all times or employment when requested and when reasonably practical to do so
- provide a regular report of work health and safety performance and activities to the Executive of the Curia, Archdiocese of Adelaide
- develop, review annually and comply with SIGC Terms of Reference
- work in partnership with Return to Work SA
- make decisions for and on behalf of the Registration, to protect the integrity and spirit of the self-insurance registration.

Officers

An Officer in the Catholic Church in South Australia is a person:

- who makes, or participates in making, decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part, of the business of the corporation
- who has the capacity to affect significantly the corporation's financial standing

A person may hold more than one duty by virtue of being in more than one class of duty holder.

An Officer, of the CCES and each Separately Incorporated entity, must exercise due diligence to ensure that the PCBU complies with its health and safety duties including taking reasonable steps to:

- acquire and keep up to date knowledge of work health and safety matters
- gain an understanding of the operations of the business of the PCBU
- gain an understanding of the hazards and risks associated with the operations of the PCBU
- ensure that the PCBU has available for use and uses, appropriate resources and processes to eliminate or minimise risks to health and safety
- ensure that the PCBU has appropriate processes for receiving and considering information regarding incidents, hazards and risks and responds in a timely way to that information
- ensure that the PCBU has and implements processes for complying with any duty or obligation of the PCBU under the Work Health and Safety Act 2012 (SA)

- verify the provision and use of resources and processes required to manage risks to health and safety and legal compliance
- ensure IM responsibilities for the PCBU are completed within appropriate guidelines and within a reasonable time frame

Catholic Safety Health & Welfare South Australia (CSHW SA)

CCES Injury Prevention Unit operating as Catholic Safety Health & Welfare South Australia is empowered for and on behalf of the CCES and the Separately Incorporated entities to:

- develop and implement policies and procedures to maintain WHS in accordance with legislation and best practice
- establish and maintain the functioning of the industry sectors WHS Committees (if it is an agreed consultative arrangement for the sector)
- coordinate and act as an administrator for the industry sector WHS Committees
- assist the industry sectors to identify the training needs of work groups within their worksites
- assist and support worksites in the management of health and safety
- collaborate with CCI Injury Management to identify and assist worksites to ensure compliance with relevant legislation and other requirements
- retain and maintain documentation for and on behalf of the Registration

Catholic Church Insurance Ltd (CCI)

CCI is, through the Deed for Substituted Arrangements, empowered for and on behalf of CCES and the separately incorporated entities to:

- provide a total Injury Management service to all workers of the Registration, including:
 - Early intervention and management for injured workers through continued liaison, education and communication with employers, worker representatives and injured workers.
 - Case management and resolution of all claims made against worksites of the Registration within all relevant legal and procedural parameters.
 - Supporting the provision of rehabilitation and return to work plans and support to injured workers and worksites in full consultation, with the Rehabilitation Return to Work Co-ordinator (RRTWC) and/or the site delegate and other relevant parties when required.
 - Monitoring rehabilitation and return to work plans to ensure return to work goals are achieved.
 - Timely and effective file reviews, for ongoing claims, to assist in claim resolution.
 - Provision of injury management training, advice and assistance to worksites.
 - Ongoing care and assistance for seriously injured workers in accordance with all legal requirements and internal procedures.
- develop and implement procedures to maintain Injury Management in line with legislation and best practice
- act on reasonable requests issued by the members of the SIGC in relation to claims and/or rehabilitation activities
- indemnify worksites for their liability to pay compensation to employees in accordance with legislation
- administer and collect levies from worksites within the Registration

- prepare and present reports to the SIGC and sector WHS Committees
- utilise appropriate skilled and experienced external advisors to assist in the management of claims and rehabilitation
- recover payments from Third Parties or injured workers when appropriate
- provide data to Return to Work SA on behalf of the Registration.

Managers and Supervisors

Managers and Supervisors who are not deemed to be Officers within the organisation but manage a budget and/or have supervisory responsibilities must follow the same duties as all workers (see below)

Workers

Any person who is carrying out work in any capacity (paid, in-kind and volunteer) for a person conducting a business or undertaking must:

- take reasonable care for his or her own safety
- take reasonable care not to adversely affect the health and safety of others in the workplace
- comply, so far as reasonably able, with any reasonable instruction that is given by the PCBU to protect the health and safety of persons in the workplace
- co-operate with any reasonable policy or procedure of the PCBU relating to health and safety at the workplace that has been notified to the worker
- comply with any reasonable direction issued by CCI in relation to a claim or return to work of an injured worker.

FUNCTIONS and RIGHTS

Work Health & Safety Committees

Where a worksite has established a work health and safety committee the functions of that group are to:

- facilitate co-operation between the PCBU and workers in instigating, developing and carrying out measures designed to ensure workers' health and safety at work
- assist in developing standards, rules and procedures relating to health and safety that are to be followed or complied with at the workplace
- undertake any other functions prescribed by the Work Health & Safety Regulations 2012 or agreed between the PCBU and the committee.

If a Work Health and Safety Committee is not established in a worksite then the site must use have an agreed method of consultation in place (e.g. an item at general staff meetings) to carry out the functions of a health and safety committee.

Health and Safety Representatives (HSR's)

CCES worksites acknowledge the legal rights and functions of elected HSR's, and support them to carry out their role of representing a work group effectively

Where a worksite has an elected HSR the PCBU will ensure that the HSR is entitled to:

- represent the workers in their work group in matters relating to work health and safety
- monitor measures taken by the PCBU or their representative, in compliance with the Work Health and Safety Act 2012 (SA) in relation to workers in the work group
- investigate complaints from members of the work group relating to work health and safety

- inquire into anything that appears to be a risk to the health or safety of workers in the work group, arising from the conduct of the PCBU.

In exercising a power or function the HSR can:

- inspect a workplace at anytime
- accompany an Inspector during an inspection of the workplace
- at the consent of the worker, be present at any interview concerning work health and safety
- request the establishment of a health and safety committee
- receive information regarding health and safety of work group members
- issue a Provisional Improvement Notice (PIN) or direct cessation of unsafe work.

A HSR is not personally liable for anything done or not done in good faith while carrying out their role.

MONITOR

The effectiveness of this policy will be monitored by:

- review of overall WHS and IM performance through the SIGC
- review of the Catholic Church Safety System and associated procedures.

INFORMATION/INSTRUCTION

All workers will be informed of the requirements of the Work Health and Safety and Injury Management Policy during induction. When this policy is reviewed and/or amended existing workers will be informed.

REVIEW

This policy shall be reviewed three yearly by the SIGC in consultation with CCES workers. Changes in legislation will require earlier review of this policy.
